A brief about JAPAN MUSLIM PEACE FEDERATION (JMPF)

JMPF is a non-political, non-commercial and non-government organization (NGO) founded in 2008 to coordinate different Muslim organizations, mosques and Islamic support groups all over Japan. It is voluntary body, without any membership binding, devoted to promoting and safeguarding the honor and prestige of last and final messenger of almighty Allah, Muhammad (peace and mercy be upon him).

The main activity of JMPF is to create awareness of Prophet's tradition (Sunnah) among the Japanese public, thus JMPF annually organize lecture series all across Japan, usually by inviting foreign scholar. Typical structure of seminar is a panel discussion by young Japanese Muslims followed by an invited lecture. JMPF also publish regularly the seminar proceeding as printed booklets (3000–5000 copies) and Islamic books in Japanese language to generate a database of material about Prophet Muhammad in Japanese language.
